LOCAL MENTION.

—Yesterday was a perfect day for the Wayne County Fair.

—The High School football team and the Port Jervis High school team will play at Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon.

—The Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held its annual opening of mite boxes at the Methodist parsonage Thursday night. There was a social programme rendered after which the mite boxes were opened. The contents, amounting to $39.37, will be sent directly to Berkeley, Cal., for the support of the Chinese children in that city.

—The German printers of picture postal cards already are beginning to feel the effect of the new tariff law. Heretofore they controlled this industry, and even the illustrations of American views were "made in Germany" and shipped to American dealers. All is changed now, and the art printers of Berlin, Leipzig and Munich are seeking other channels for a large part of their reproductions. It is a hard blow for the German postal card industry.

—Mr. Paul Gilmore will be seen with his company at the Lyric on Wednesday, Oct. 6, in his annual offering, his present vehicle being the new comedy-drama of the northern Canadian frontier, "The Call of the North," written by George Broadhurst, author of "The Man of the Hour," and taken from Stewart Edward White's novel, "Confuror's Home"; a play in which Mr. Gilmore is said to have surpassed all of his former hits. Newspapers elsewhere have described this as a stirring, romantic and intensely interesting drama.

—A moving picture machine in a crowded Nicket on Main street, at Old Forge, exploded last Friday night, throwing the audience into a small panic. The building is an old affair and had no exits except the front door, which was cut off by a mass of flames. The fire was right over the door, and as the people saw that their only way of exit was a mass of biting flames they became so terrified that it was hard to control them. Presence of mind on the part of the operator finally caused an end to the blazing film. Tony Colerico operated the place.

—The Lutheran Sunday school teachers will give an ice cream social on Tuesday, October 12th.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Weston left on Friday for an automobile trip through the Berkshire hills, in Massachusetts.

—Henry N. Theobald's horse won the first prize at Stroudsburg in the 2:35 class on Wednesday. Time was 2:26 1-2.

—John Connolly has purchased the property known as the Bassett place on the corner of West and Thirteenth streets.

—Isaac H. Ball, for several years treasurer of the board of trustees of the Methodist church, has resigned. He has been succeeded by R. J. Penwarden.

—Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Gardner cordially invite all their friends to their fiftieth wedding anniversary Oct. 15th, 1909, from 3 o'clock until 5 and from 7 until 10 p. m.

—Marriage licenses have been granted to Michael Lowe and Kate Rabbitt, both of Honesdale; Leon R. Dunn, of Dyberry, and Myrtle G. Gregory, of Beach Lake.

—The Wayne county fair promises to be a big success this year. The exhibits are the best ever seen. Last week twenty-three cars brought live stock and poultry to Honesdale.

—Francis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Hahn, of Cottage street, died on Thursday evening. The funeral was held last Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with interment in Riverside cemetery.

—A granddaughter of Mrs. Harriet Schoonover of Vine street, was badly burned one day last week while playing with matches. The little one's clothing caught fire and burned her person quite severely at the hip.

—On Friday the following commission composed of W. H. Lee, Dr. P. Griffin and Leonard Guekenberger met to inquire into the sanity of William Bauman, who was recently arrested on the charge of maliciously using firearms.

—Judge Alonzo T. Searle, of Wayne county, visited Judge Archibald at the Federal building yesterday. Judge Searle was heartily congratulated by the federal officials upon his recent appointment.—Saturday's Scranton Tribune.

H. Varcoe; auditors, Chas. Cade, Thomas Varcoe and Buel Dodge; representative to grand lodge, William A. Sluman.

—A new time-table went into effect on the Delaware & Hudson railroad on Sunday. There was no change made on the Honesdale branch. The schedule of the Honesdale branch is as follows: Trains leave at 6:55 a. m., 12:25 p. m., 4:30 p. m.; arrive at 9:55 a. m., 3:15 p. m. and 7:31 p. m. Sunday trains arrive at 10:15 a. m., 6:50 p. m.; leave at 11:05 a. m., and 7:15 p. m.

—Newspaper men, as a rule, have but two things to sell—space and subscription—and it would be just as consistent to ask your grocer for a dozen oranges "just to fill up" as to ask the editor for a dozen lines in his paper just to boost your business with the idea you are doing a kindness in helping to "fill up" space. Try getting a free dinner at the hotel just to make a show of business for the house.

—The pastor of the German Lutheran church of Hazleton, Pa., offered a prize consisting of a large box of candy to each young lady of his congregation who would bring two young men to Sunday school with her. What success the young ladies had in getting the young men to attend we have not learned, but it is presumable, that if no ball games were scheduled for that day they succeeded in inducing their men friends to seek consolation in the Sunday school and thus help them win the candy.

—On Thursday afternoon officer John Canavan arrested Charles and John Enhart on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The two men came to Honesdale several weeks ago and secured work with contractor Frank Varcoe. Last week they went on a "drunk" and had been about town in that condition for several days. They were arranged before Burgess John Kuback and given thirty days at hard labor on the borough streets. They joined Commissioner Weidner's gang the following morning.

—On Saturday morning Scranton had a flood caused by the bursting of a large water main on Monroe Avenue, corner of Ridge Row. The asphalt pavement was torn up and an immense volume of water rushed down the streets in the vicinity of the break, flooding the new Lackawanna railroad station and inundating the tracks of the railroad for quite a distance. The flow of water continued for two hours before the authorities were able to shut it off, in the meantime the riot call was sent in and the police brought to the scene of the trouble. The railroad company mustered all their forces and united effort was made to divert the stream into directions where the least harm could be done. Several casualties were reported, such as upsetting of vehicles, horses swept off their feet, drivers hurled from their seats, but nothing of a fatal character was reported.

—Register and Recorder Gamble, Elmer and Harvey Ferguson attended the Binghamton races last Wednesday.

—Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service in the Indian Orchard school house, Sunday, Oct. 10, at 2:30 p. m. Sunday school at 1:45 p. m.

—The Maennerchor society has lately enlarged its stage and also added new scenery. It will at an early date give a concert and play at the hall on Seventh street.

—Archdeacon Benj. F. Thompson, of Reading, will preach at Grace Episcopal church on Wednesday, Oct. 6, at 7:30 p. m. Services on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 o'clock.

—The annual meeting of the Honesdale Golf Club will be held on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock when officers will be elected for the ensuing year. Supper will be served at 5 p. m.

—Christy Rabbit, who was again arrested and sentenced to thirty days, escaped from Street Commissioner Weidner on Wednesday. Rabbit started to work on the streets that morning. He watched for his chance and escaped. He visited several saloons that day and then went to the home of his sister, Miss Kathryn Rabbit, and broke furniture and windows. He was arrested on Thursday and has again joined the street gang.

—The Business men's association will, at their next regular monthly meeting, Wednesday, the 13th, take action on the matter of Monday evening closing. The question of lighting will also be discussed. It is expected a representative of a company will be present to explain the new system of gasoline illumination which has created such a havoc with the electric light companies of the middle west by reducing the cost of lighting over 50 per cent. and giving far better satisfaction.

—The large audience which filled the Lyric theatre on Monday evening to witness "Brewster's Millions" did not go away dissatisfied; far from that, everyone was more than pleased. From the rising of the curtain in the first act till its final going down in the last was one round of applause for the expert way in which the different persons played their respective parts. The scenery was magnificent, and the management of the Lyric is to be congratulated on securing such a high-class attraction for the theatre-loving people of Honesdale.

—On Friday evening a number of friends of Miss Agatha McGraw gave her a surprise party at her home on Erie street. The evening was spent playing games and other amusements; refreshments were also served during the evening. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. "THE HEIR TO THE HOORAH."

The Thursday Night Attraction at the Lyric.

A comedy with a thousand laughs is the way to describe Paul Armstrong's clever play, "The Heir to the Hoorah" which comes to the Lyric Thursday, Oct. 7. It is one of the brightest comedies that has ever been seen here. None of the laughs are based on horse-play, everybody acts just like some real person might act under similar circumstances, and most of it is uproariously, exuberantly funny.

It is not all smiles, this comedy. It is not all comedy for that matter, although it does not jump from farce to melo-drama and from melo-drama to tragedy. There are some really serious scenes when the audience breathes its sympathy with the rough and ready miner, rich as "Scotty of Death Valley" from his "Hoorah," linked to a woman who does not love him because her mother threw her at his head.

The delicious humor of the dinner scene in the second act, where the miners and ranchmen gather to honor their pal, Joe Lacy, and wear evening clothes out of compliment to him even though, as Gus Ferris says: "Anybody can pull a gun, but it takes a game man to wear a collar," will linger long in the memory of those who see "The Heir to the Hoorah."

It's Dead Easy.

Too poor to take a home paper? Well, that is a distressful condition. Buy a hen, feed her crumbs and waste from the kitchen and she will lay eggs to pay for a year's subscription; then work her up into pot pie and she will pay first cost; so the paper will be clear profit. Repeat this process year after year, meanwhile learn wisdom and cease to be poor.
